

We Begin Again in Love

Responsive Unison Singing with Speaker and Piano

Speaker: For remaining silent when a single voice would have made a difference

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For each time that our fears have made us rigid and inaccessible

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For each time that we have struck out in anger without just cause

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For each time that our greed has blinded us to the needs of others

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For the selfishness which sets us apart and alone

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For falling short of the admonitions of the spirit

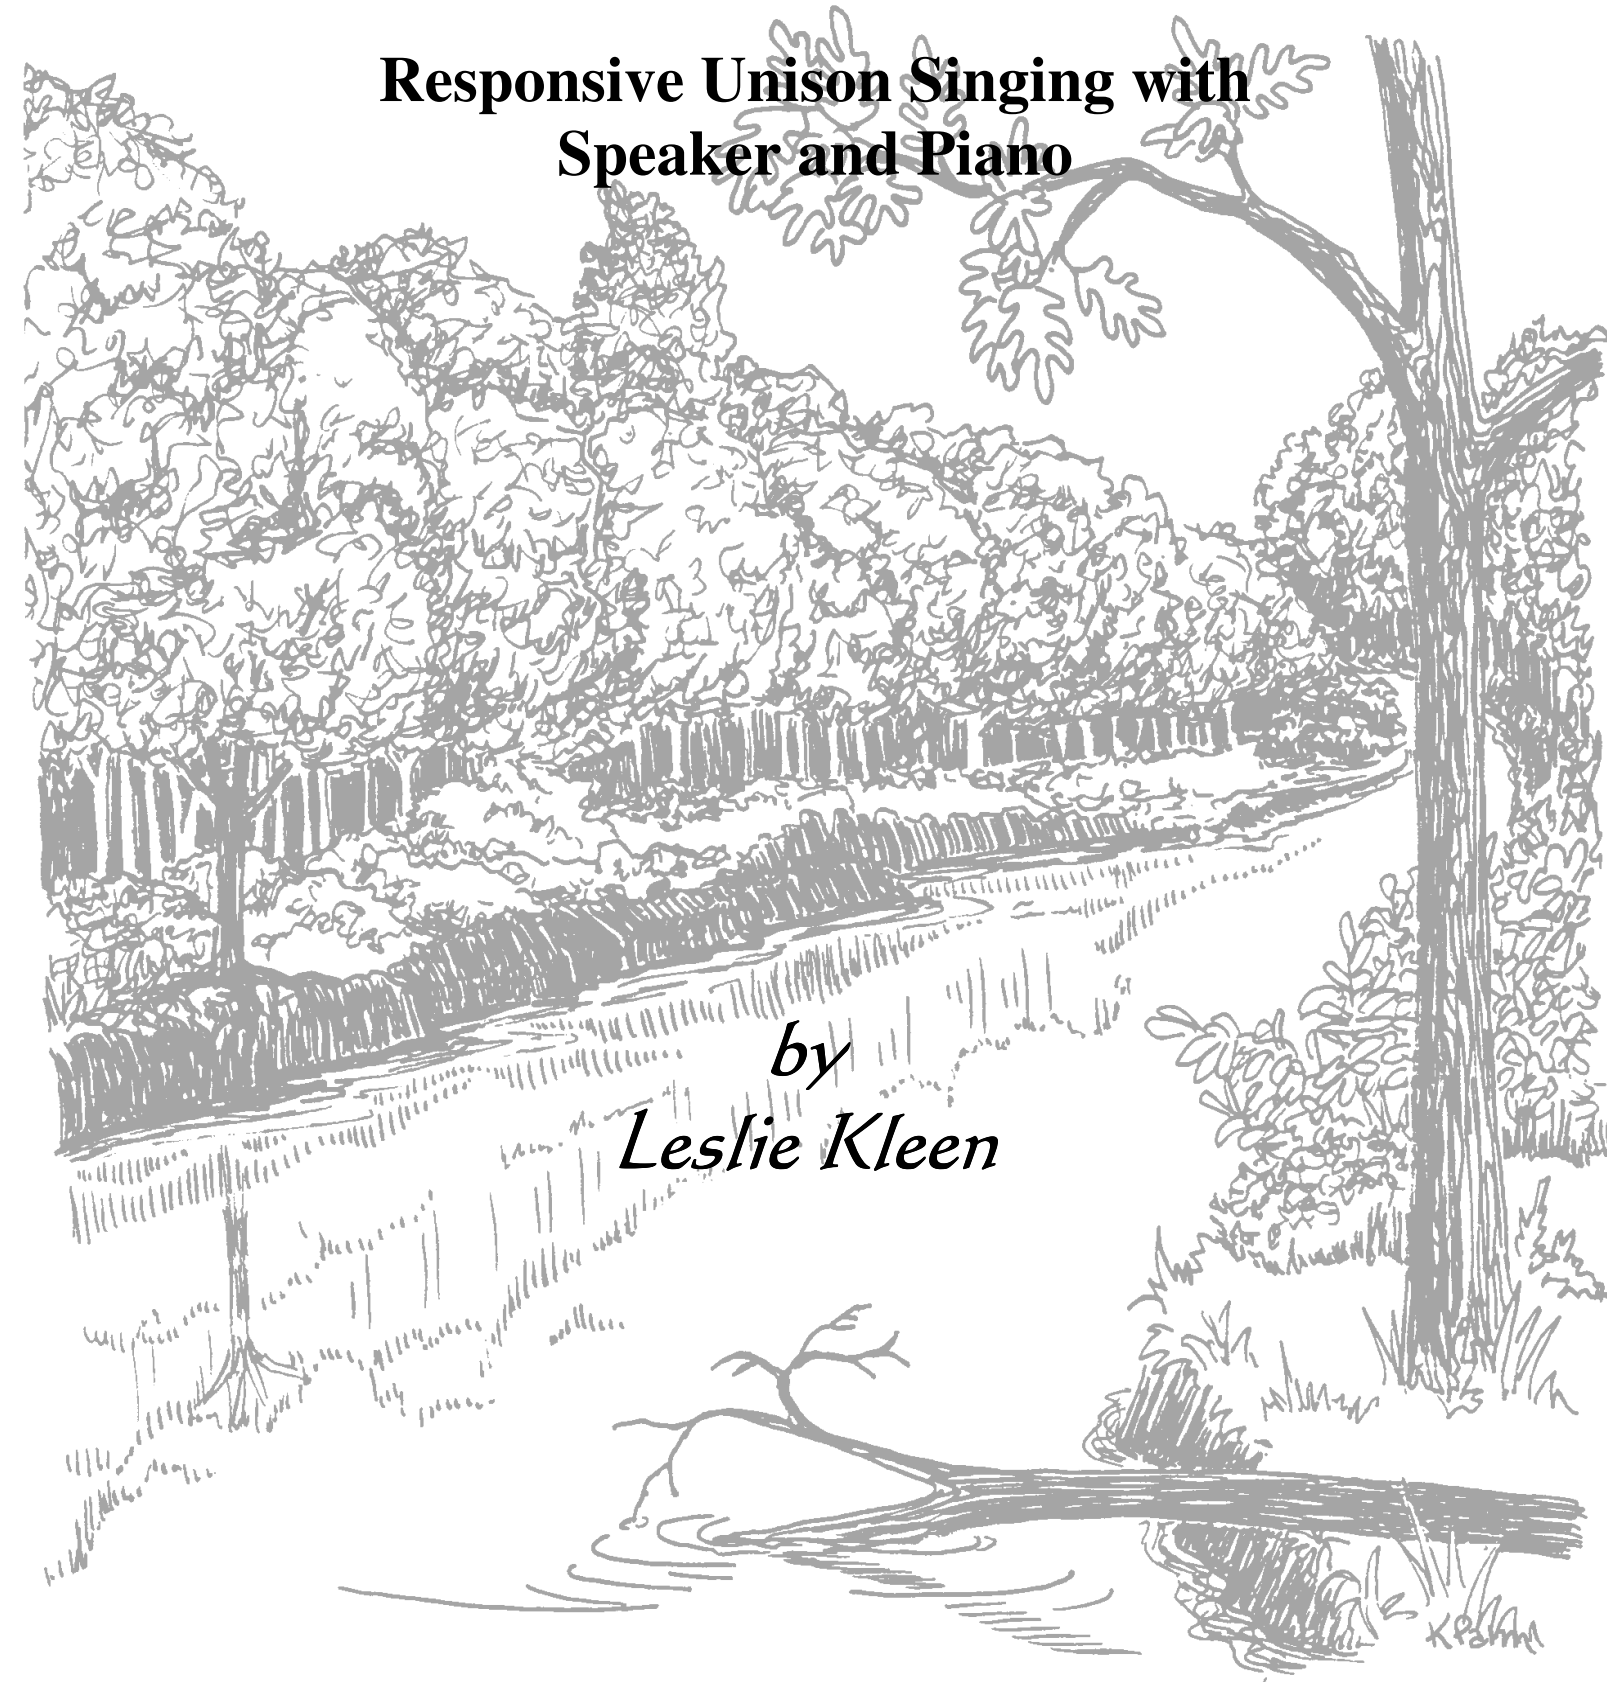

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For losing sight of our unity

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For those and for so many acts both evident and subtle which have fueled the illusion of separateness

Sung: We forgive ourselves and each other; we begin again in love.

Speaker: For remaining silent when a single voice would have made a difference

Piano

We for-give our-selves and each oth-er; We be-gin a-gain in love.

For each time that our fears have made us rigid and inaccessible

Pno.

(Congregation sings same melody each time.)

For each time that we have struck out in anger without just cause

Pno.

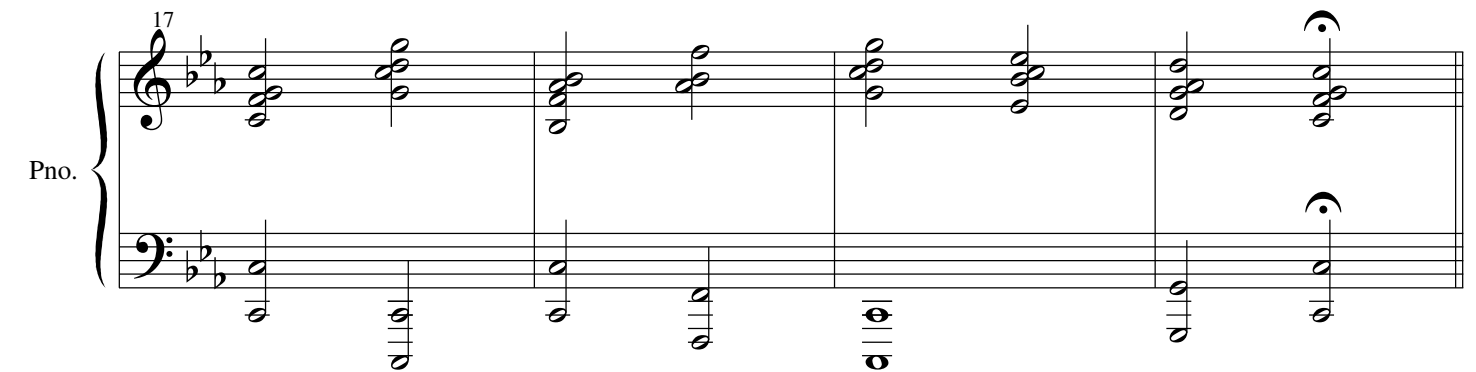

For each time that our greed has blinded us to the needs of others

Pno.

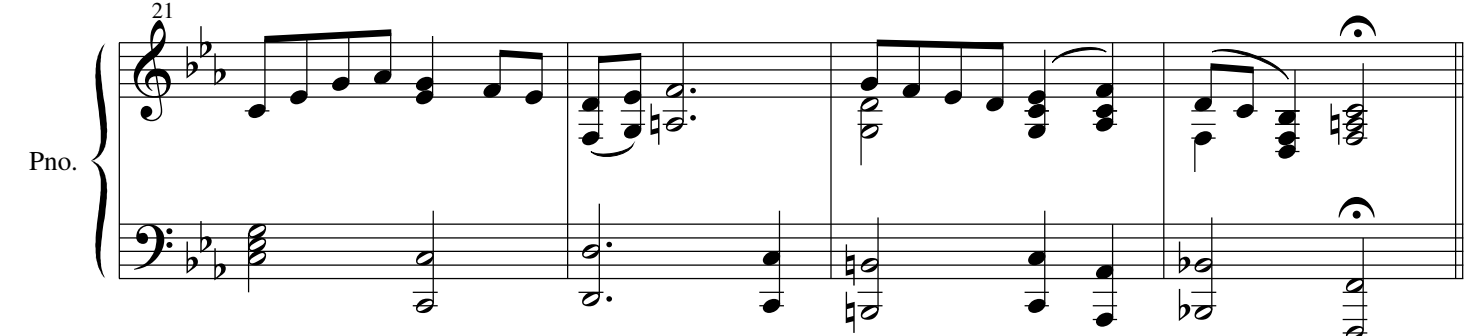

For the selfishness which sets us apart and alone

Pno.

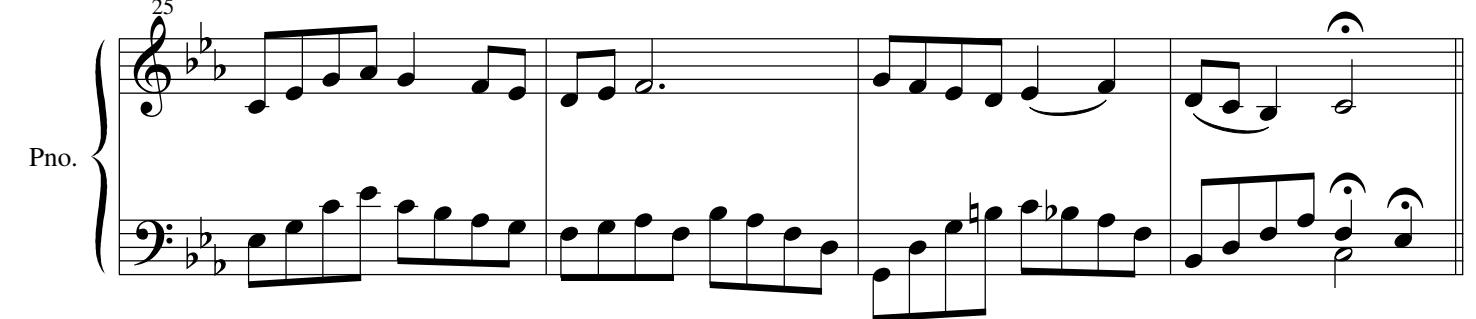

For falling short of the admonitions of the spirit

Pno.

For losing sight of our unity

Pno.

For those and for so many acts both evident and subtle which have fueled the illusion of separateness

Pno.

* The same four-measure response: "We forgive ourselves and each other, We begin again in love." is sung in unison after each spoken line.
